DEATH RATHER THAN JAIL.

agie Attempt at Saicide In the Raymo Street Prison. Gustave Scholl, a German, thirty-eigh ars old, who is in the Raymond Street Jan rooklyn, awaiting trial on a charge of as mult in the first degree, tried to commit suicide this morning. For some time past he has been confined in

For some time past he has been confined in a cell on the third tier of the main prison, some fifty feet up from the ground floor.

About 6.30 this morning, while the prisoners were being marched out to the washroom, Scholl suddenly made a jump over the somewhat low railing which skirts the gallery running around the exterior of the cells.

The keepers on the ground floor saw him fall, and rushed to his assistance. Meantime an ambulance which had been summoned arrived.

The ambulance surgeon, after a hasty examination, pronounced him to have sustained severe internal injuries.

His face and head are also badly lacerated. He was removed to the City Hospital.

Scholl is one of two men who a few weeks ago assaulted James Donner, a milkman, in a stable at East New York with a bale stick.

CHINESE GAMBLERS FINED.

They Had Been Detained Without Food for tteen Hours and Asked for Mercy.

The tall, burly form of Lawyer Edmund E. Price formed a background for a group of Celestials with shaven foretops and coiled pigtails in Judge Gildersleeve's court coiled pigtails in Judge Gildersleeve's court this morning.

The prisoners were Hong Sing, who looked sixty-five years; Ah Lee, who must have been of the sphere mundane for half that time; Ah King, who was consumptive and perhaps forty-five years of age, and Ah Ling, who might be a voter if naturalized.

Each said he was forty-five years old, and all were charged with gambling by Comstock's agent, Oram.

Mr. Price said his clients had been indulging in a quiet game of penny-ante when Mr. Oram looked in. They had been looked up and detained without food for sixteen hours, and now threw themselves on the mercy of the Court.

They were not capitalists, but a more prosperous looking Chinaman paid the fines of $10 each and they departed.

VERDICT FOR EBENEZER HOLMES.

The Jury Decides He Was Damaged by the Times" to the Extent of $5,000.

Ballston, Jan. 24 .- The case of Ebenezer Holmes against George Jones, Treasurer of Holmes against George Jones, Treasurer of the New York Times, has been on trial at Ballston since last Wednesday. The principal counsel were C. S. Lester and Matthew Hale for Holmes and B. T. Einsteir and E. T. Brackett for the defendant.

The libel was in the issue of Nov. 22, 1886, and stated that Holmes had presented a bill to the Grant family which they pronounced blackmailing in color; also that Stephen Merritt and son said that Holmes was drunk.

The jury were out all night and agreed at 6 o'clock this morning to a verdict for $5,006.

LEFT THE JOKES TO SHOOT HIMSELF.

The Suicide Who Wanted to be Cremated Jersey City Wine Merchant.

The man who shot himself through the heart at the new Odd-Fellows' Hall at Westchester on Sunday afternoon was George Baier, a wine merchant, who owned property valued at thousands of dollars, near his home, 131 Avenue E, in the fashionable Greenville district of Jersey City. He leaves Greenville district of Jersey City. He leaves a fortune of $125,000.

His body will be buried to-day in the New York Bay Cemetery at Yorkville, notwithstanding the written request that he be cremated found together with a $100 bill in his pockets.

Baier was fifty-eight years of age, and a grandfather. He kissed each member of his family early on Sunday morning and left home, saying that he intended to visit the new hall, to the cost of which he had contributed largely. He went there with John Morseh, of 106 Murray street, and dined at the hall.

At 2 o'clock, in the midst of after-dinner jokes, Baier arose, saying that he would look about the upper floors of the hall. He entered the bathroom, stripped himself, and, lying on his back on the floor, fired three shots into his heart.

The suicide is attributed to aberration of the mind, caused by money troubles. Baier lost heavily some years ago and showed the effect of the shock ever after. He had just bought and furnished a house on Danforth avenue, Greenville, into which his family was to move in a short time.

He leaves a widow and three children, two of them married.

A TRIAL BY JURY PIRST.

fr. Crosby's Bill to Prevent the Commitment of Sane Persons to Asylums.

ALBANY, Jan. 24.—In the Assembly this morning Mr. Crosby offered a bill which requires a trial by jury before a person can be committed to an asylum for the insane. Mr. Shea presented another, which is aimed at the changing of cars at the junction of the Second Avenue Railroad and the Suburban Rapid Transit road. It provides that the only transmitted by run that through trains must be run.

Mr. Rosenthal introduced another bill prohibiting storage warehouse keepers from selling goods placed in their charge, at least until due notice is given the owners.

About noon the Assembly and Senate met in joint session to elect a Regent of the University in place of Elias W. Leavenworth, deversity in place of Elias W. Leavenworth, deceased.

The Republicans had Carroll G. Smith, editor of the Syracuse Journal, slated for the place, while the Democrats put up C. Ananias Dana to be knocked down. Dana was snowed under, as was expected.

The vote of the Assembly was 67 for Smith and 45 for Dana, eight Democrats refusing to vote for Ananias. Twenty Republican Senators voted for Smith and eleven Democrats for Dana. The Lieutenant Governor, therefore, formally declared Editor Smith elected.
